

Minutes Final Discussion LLIN Integration Workstream Meeting February 22nd

- The role of civil society / faith based organizations how can this be further developed / addressed by this group.
- How do we strengthen the role of WHO and WHO AFRO both in country and at the level of the partnership.
- Application of the theory to the field how can be better sustain impact / sustain support to scale up going forward
- Going forward how can be support development of expertise in the field
- Identify gaps post campaign in LLIN coverage newly born / newly pregnant
- Bundling cost to include post campaign activities, needs for replacement LLINs, regular monitoring and evaluation.
- Campaigns are needed how can we balance both the vertical and horizontal aspects of the programme.
- Expansion of the role of the private sector to reaching 2010 targets.
- How can this partnership support the transfer of innovation by the private sector down to the country level. To the MoH level to provide them with the information needed when making decisions on vector control interventions.
- How can we identify the questions effecting increased utilization that need to be addressed by this partnership and coordinate a strategy to address them.
- How can we achieve total coverage and sustain it.
- 2009 meeting we need to involve the countries that campaigns will take place in. RBM has a proposal to support this.
- Establish an operational research working group to address the key research issues going forward focal points Paul, Steve, George.
- GFATM R8 proposal for DRC and Nigeria, how can this group support the development / strengthen the development of the R8 proposal
- HAWG
- GFATM grants allow funding for operational research that has not been fully utilized.
- Annual calendar for advocacy and communications 2009
- Incorporation of industry will benefit the technology aspects of this program but also the communication priorities of this campaign.
- Lack of coordination of procurement with industry in a timely manner. Measles Partnership input was this process took a number of years to develop.
- Recognition of the importance of communications to achieve the 2010 targets.
- Recognition of the importance of the 1 day communication / advocacy meeting in advance of this meeting.
- Private sector and the issue of fluctuation in the market and the challenges to accurate forecasting
- Country summary - firm details dates numbers where and when possible.
- The issue of standardization of product balanced with the preferences on the end user and the impact on utilization.
- The strength of the in country partnership improved linkage between this group and the partners on the ground.